

House Resolution No.

Whereas, it is with tremendous pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives recognize one of the Show-Me State's most illustrious students, Abbie Hesse of the Van-Far R-I School District; and

Whereas, Abbie Hesse is a senior at Vandalia High School and a Pershing Scholar who will attend Truman State University in Kirksville in the fall; and

Whereas, in addition to an already stellar list of accomplishments, Abbie Hesse was recently honored at a luncheon hosted by the Missouri Scholars 100 program which is sponsored by the Missouri Association of Secondary School Principals; and

Whereas, one of only one hundred students statewide to be acclaimed as a Missouri Scholar, Abbie Hesse is included on the basis of her grade point average, score on the ACT or SAT examination, and rank in the top ten percent of her graduating class; and

Whereas, Abbie Hesse also was judged on her pursuit of upper-level courses in the fields of mathematics, science, English, and foreign language; and

Whereas, Abbie Hesse met other high standards for inclusion in the Missouri Scholars 100 program, such as excellent attendance, exemplary school citizenship, and involvement in school activities; and

Whereas, Abbie Hesse was accompanied to the Missouri Scholars 100 luncheon in Columbia, Missouri, by her justifiably proud parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kerry Hesse; her bother, Ryan; her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hesse; and her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Stagg; and

Whereas, executive director Dr. Jim L. King of MASSP served as Master of Ceremonies at the Missouri Scholars 100 event:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the selection of Abbie Hesse for inclusion on the 2003 roster of the Missouri Scholars 100 program and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest congratulations and best wishes for continued personal and academic success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Abbie Hesse of Vandalia High School.
